FRANK ROMEO PERCY BAILEY IS PUT TO DEATH IN SALT LAKE HOSPITAL

Frank Romeo, an Italian miner, who murdered A. V. Jenkins at Price, Utah, two years ago, was executed by shooting at the state penitentiary, at 8 o'clock this morning.

In the record time of three minutes after stepping from his cell, he was led into the prison yard, strapped to a chair and shot. Romeo collapsed when he faced the firing squad. He confessed his guilt to the governor yesterday.

Last evening W. G. Wilson visited at the L. D. S. hospital in Salt Lake Percy Bailey, who was injured in the Bamberger wreck Tuesday morning. Mr. Wilson says that Mr. Bailey's back is injured quite seriously and that it is with difficulty that the patient turns over in bed. The scalp wound is of little consequence and gives the patient no trouble.

At the time of the collision, Mr. Bailey was riding with his back toward the front of the car. The impact threw him against the seat next to him. This injured his back and cut a wound in the back of his head.

PROGRESSIVES ADJOURN TO FEB. 26

The Progressive meeting last night was poorly attended and adjourned until next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock sharp.

Progressives called early and said they had other appointments and asked for a later date, and before 8 o'clock the meeting had adjourned until next Wednesday evening at the same place, Labor hall, No. 1, at 363 Twenty-fourth street.

Please cut this out and remember the day and the date, February 26—next Wednesday.

ICE CLOGS THE GUTTERS OF THE CITY

The street department is having a hard time removing snow and ice from the gutter on the south side of Twenty-fifth street, between Grant and Lincoln avenues. Men are at work again today, this being the sixth time that the ice and snow have been cleared away in the past few weeks.

Commissioner J. C. Nye states that the freezing weather makes the clearing of the gutters difficult.

CONTEST OVER A HUSBAND'S LOVE

Answers to "The Rosary" Question Must Be at the Standard by 9 o'clock Tomorrow Morning—48 Tickets Are to Be Given Away to the Performance at the Orpheum on February 23.

How may a wife preserve her husband's love?

For the best answers to the foregoing question the Standard will award theater seats for "The Rosary," which will be seen at the Orpheum theater, and which discusses this very question. It is the great big hit produced on the popular circuit this season, and there are now five companies playing it in different parts of the country. The one to be seen here Sunday is the big city company with a special car of scenery. The rules given at the end of this article must be followed very carefully. Each answer to be considered must be in the Standard office by 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the names of the winners will appear in Friday evening's paper. The letters themselves will not be published.

Driven by rapid pace of the times, American husbands are said to be so engrossed in business that they forget the "little things," which makes their wives' existence happy. Kisses, kind words, candy and flowers, the small favors which show a man thinks continually of a woman, are said to be lacking. Husbands nowadays make good homes for their wives, but it is reported the modern husband forgets to love his wife after he marries her. How can this be overcome? How can you preserve your husband's love?

Will Get a Box.
The woman who sends the best letter of suggestion to the "Rosary" editor will receive one box of eight seats at the Orpheum theater February 23. The women who send the next 20 best letters each will receive two tickets for the best seats.

The story of "The Rosary" is a convincing one, the leading characters are a rich man with few religious convictions, and his devoted and faithful wife. The man loves his wife and lavishes upon her his wealth, but his attention to business makes him forget the little devotions due his wife at home. An old suitor comes on the scene and he starts a harmless flirtation with her. The suitor has really learned to love her sister and when they plan an elopement and go away at night the husband finds his wife in the room from which they have fled. He suspects his wife and they separate.

Rules of the Contest.
The question is, "How can a wife preserve her husband's love?" Each answer must be fifty words or less. Each answer must be written in ink on one side of paper only, and must be at the office of the Standard not later than 9 a. m. February 21. All answers must be addressed to "The Rosary" editor. Unless all letters conform to each and all these rules they cannot be considered.

"that would occasion hilarity throughout the country."

Answers Objection.
Senator Smith replied quickly:

"I am ready to assume any responsibility for any hilarity the passage of this bill may occasion. When so distinguished a gentleman as the attorney general of the United States declares this measure to be a good one, I feel that I am safe in assuming any responsibility connected with it. I believe the bill is a step forward. I believe that it makes for good government. The expression of the people's will should be as complete as possible. We are going to have more direct legislation now than ever before, and it is absolutely necessary to the success of the plan that the people go to the polls to vote."

Senator L. B. Wright of Summit also spoke in behalf of the bill, declaring that unless the people went to the polls and voted, the political bosses would have an easy time controlling the elections. At present he said, thousands of dollars were spent each year in Salt Lake for transportation of voters to the polls. This money, he said, was paid out of a boodle fund. Under the present law there appeared no reason for supplying carriages or other means of transportation. This expense would be eliminated and the voters would be free to vote unrestricted by obligation to the party that supplied the transportation.

Senators D. O. Riddett, J. R. Edgell and Joseph Eckersley spoke in favor of the bill, after which the roll was called, and the bill was passed by the following vote:

Ayes—Booth, Castle, Eckersley, Edgell, Ferry, Kelly, Riddett, Smith, Wright, President Clark, 10. Nays—Cottrell, Fank, Hansen, Iverson, Lunt, Olson, Thornley, Williams, 5.

'DETECTIVES' SEARCH AND ROB A MAN

Jose Naura, a Spaniard, who but a short time ago was in police court on the charge of fighting, but was released when it was found that he had been tricked by some of his countrymen and was the victim of an old game yesterday afternoon which cost him $14.

Naura told the police that he had met an Italian, whose name he did not know, and the two had gone to a point at Twenty-first street and Lincoln avenue, where they found four men playing cards. While Naura was watching the game, two strangers, both Americans, appeared on the scene and, stating they were detectives, began to search the party. Although all were searched, $14 taken from Naura's pocket was the only money secured.

After the search the "detectives" and others disappeared, leaving the Spaniard to notify the police and sheriff.

Sheriff Harrison received word from Brigham City this morning that four men, answering the description given by Naura, were under arrest on suspicion. A deputy sheriff will be dispatched to Brigham this afternoon to investigate.

The McWhirter brothers, a few years ago were robbed of $10,000 in Salt Lake in the same way. "Jim" Donaldson acting in the role of officer.

KITTY KNIGHT PRAISED BY LA LONGE

Ogden was favored today with a visit from "Mickey" La Longe, a big league catcher who is on his way from Sacramento, where he has been playing this winter, to join the Philadelphia Nationals at their spring training quarters in Southern Pines, N. C. The visit was unintentional, for Mr. La Longe would have been on his way had it not been for the fact that he could not check his pet dog in time to catch the eastbound train. Mrs. La Longe accompanied her husband and they had intended to stop at Mansfield, O., but because of the enforced delay they will continue on to the Atlantic coast.

"Mickey" is acquainted with "Kittie"

Knight, who, he said is playing excellent ball and he also knows Murray, Ogden's great outfielder who is as slim and freckled as ever, according to the catcher. He believes that Ogden could select no better manager for the team than Knight and states that the pitcher has a great reputation on the coast.

In 1911 La Longe played with the Portland Beavers and he wears with pride one of the coveted "Beaver" fobs, with the gold ball and crossed bats. Last year he played with Washington, D. C., and was sent to Sacramento at the close of the season.

La Longe is 26 years old and is of a stocky build. That he has been playing ball is evident from his bronzed skin.

He was interested in the Union association and discussed baseball in general at the depot this morning.

STANLEY URGES BILL IN HOUSE

Washington, Feb. 20.—Representative Stanley of Kentucky today urged the house judiciary committee to recommend the passage of his bill to prohibit holding companies from engaging in interstate commerce.

"The Sherman law," said Mr. Stanley, "is easily eluded and does not prevent monopoly. Reorganization of the Standard Oil and American Tobacco companies was just as ingenious as the original trusts. To enforce the Sherman law it must be proved that there is a combination in restraint of trade. There is no law

Mexico City Getting Back to Normal-Anti-American Feeling Subsides

Washington, Feb. 20.—Order is being restored in Mexico City. Ambassador Henry L. Wilson so notified the state department today. Relatives of Americans in the Mexican capital may send money direct to banks, although it may be sent through the embassy if desired. Although quiet prevails by day, the ambassador reports many booters abroad by night. The American embassy relief committee is actively relieving sufferers among the sick, wounded and destitute.

Consuls report anti-American feeling subsiding in the states where the circulation of false statements concerning plans of the United States has aroused enmity. The populace in Ciudad Portiro Diaz appears indifferent over the results in Mexico City. Saltillo is quiet.

Great joy in Durango. News of the change was received with great joy in Durango, where the governor and federal commander assured Consul Hamm they would accept the Huerta government. Federal and local officials in Vera Cruz promised Consul Canada that order would be maintained. Consul Edwards says Ciudad Juarez is quiet and that the news from the little surprise He said nothing had been heard from the rebels in the outlying districts whose actions might make the future problematical.

Washington is again in communication with Acapulco. So long the center of the anti-American demonstration.
